Workshop on Unexplored Realm of Tribal World

SILCHAR, Sept 18: A three-day workshop on 'Philosophy and spirituality of eternal, primordial religion and culture and the janajati people of Northeast India' organized by Janajati Faith and Culture Protection Forum will be held in Guwahati. Explaining the objective behind the workshop and discussion on the theme, Jaleswar Brahma, general secretary of the Forum, said the eternal or primordial religion of janajatis are most scientific, eco friendly and most ancient inherited from the forefathers from generation to generation through oral traditions, in most of the cases.

Some literatures are found in the case of a few janajati communities but that appears to be incomplete and have some scope for further expansion and improvement. He added to say most of the janajati communities lack such literatures were documented and authentic and perfect in very aspect. Because of this, there exists a state of confusion and dilemma for those who take interest in the study of the faith and culture of janajatis. However, as he said, a written theology perfect in all respects from literary point of view, authenticity and precision of the contents as well as related to each janajati community is of prime importance.

Dr. Joogesh Pego, programme coordinator, added to say since sufficient literatures are not readily available, requisite information has to be acquired and collected through discussion with priests, village elder and other resource persons to be compiled in the form of seminar paper which will be a sort of researched work.

Taking into consideration the importance of such compilation, the Forum which has been working in this field is hopeful that the ensuing workshop will be an exercise to explore many of the unexplored facts about janajatis. The attempt to be made by selected experts and others with deep knowledge of the wide spectrum of tribal life will prepare a well documented paper on the theme that will be taken up for presentation and workshop and followed by in-depth analysis and deliberation.

Taking Jeme, joint coordinator, pointed out a renaissance is sweeping across the janajati people of Northeast. It is a movement for the revitalization of the eternal religion and culture. There is now a growing realization among the religious leaders to preserve their identity and culture in view of the onslaught by the Christian missionaries for proselytizing. The revitalization movement as pointed out by him are the Seng-Khasi movement of Meghalaya under the leadership of K.C. Anderson Mowri and Hipson Roy, Donyi Polo movement in Arunachal Pradesh under the leadership of Talam Rukbo, Zeliangrong Heraka movement under the leadership of Rani Gaidinliu and NE Zeliang, Zeliangrong Tinghao Ragwang Chapriak in Manipur and Rangraism in Arunachal Pradesh as well as many other such movements.

Top Ten Signs You're a Fundamentalist Christian

10 - You vigorously deny the existence of thousands of gods claimed by other religions, but feel outraged when someone denies the existence of yours.

9 - You feel insulted and "dehumanized" when scientists say that people evolved from other life forms, but you have no problem with the Biblical claim that we were created from dirt.

8 - You laugh at polytheists, but you have no problem believing in a Triune God.

7 - Your face turns purple when you hear of the "atrocities" attributed to Allah, but you don't even flinch when hearing about how God/Jehovah slaughtered all the babies of Egypt in "Exodus" and ordered the elimination of entire ethnic groups in "Joshua" including women, children, and trees!

6 - You laugh at Hindu beliefs that deify humans, and Greek claims about gods sleeping with women, but you have no problem believing that the Holy Spirit impregnated Mary, who then gave birth to a man-god who got killed, came back to life and then ascended into the sky.

5 - You are willing to spend your life looking for little loopholes in the scientifically established age of Earth (few billion years), but you find nothing wrong with believing dates recorded by Bronze Age tribesmen sitting in their tents and guessing that Earth is a few generations old.

4 - You believe that the entire population of this planet with the exception of those who share your beliefs -- though excluding those in all rival sects - will spend Eternity in an infinite Hell of Suffering. And yet consider your religion the most "tolerant" and "loving."

3 - While modern science, history, geology, biology, and physics have failed to convince you otherwise, some idiot rolling around on the floor speaking in "tongues" may be all the evidence you need to "prove" Christianity.

2 - You define 0.01% as a "high success rate" when it comes to answered prayers. You consider that to be evidence that prayer works. And you think that the remaining 99.99% FAILURE was simply the will of God.

1 - You actually know a lot less than many atheists and agnostics do about the Bible, Christianity, and church history - but still call yourself a Christian.
